OPPOSITION TO SEX HYGIENE IN DENVER SCHOOLS

On the 18th of September a number of leading and influential citizens of Denver appeared before the school board to register their protest against the continued teaching of sex hygiene in the public schools.

Among those who strongly opposed this innovation were doctors, lawyers, clergymen, educators, and citizens prominent in the serious activities of the commonwealth.

The principal speakers in opposition to the teaching of sex hygiene included: Dr. P. V. Carlin, a member of the school board; Dr. Maud Schram of the Colorado branch of the National League for Medical Freedom; Rev. Father William O'Ryan, Judge R. Rees, Attorney Andrew Gillette, Mrs. Agnes Bishop, and Professor Howell T. Pershing, M. D., a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, who at the present time fills the chair of Neurology and Psychiatry in the state university of Colorado.

This physician occupies an enviable position as an alienist and deeply thoughtful medical educator. His remarks, as reported in the Denver Republican, are given below, and coming from an educational specialist of the medical profession, are especially significant.

Dr. Pershing, after observing that he had been a physician for twenty-nine years, said:

"Sexual impulses are difficult to talk of safely. I would hesitate to take a class of boys in sex hygiene. It is a matter for individual discussion. Leave this subject alone in your schools. I have abundant reasons for saying so. Go slow about it; wait ten years, and then don't teach it. That is my advice to you. Bad sexual impulses are aroused not by ignorance, but by instinct. Restraint comes not through knowledge, but from other sources. Persons come to me who know what is right and wrong in this matter, but cannot restrain themselves. People having difficulty in restraining their bad impulses need to get away from them. They don't want to reason. The man who wants to stop drinking doesn't want to hear you all the time tell him not to drink and why he shouldn't drink. He must get the thought of drink out of his mind."

"This applies with much greater force to sexual impulses. Such matters discussed with young boys and girls whet their curiosity, awaken the instinct, and give the sexual problem a disproportionate place in their minds. Do not bother them about it. I do not know where you could find a person competent to teach this subject. Not even a motherly woman can teach it. She would lack the technical knowledge. It requires an accurate scientific knowledge as well as experience. I do not know a class of physicians competent to teach it, and I do not know a class of teachers competent to teach it."

"There are certain medical schools in which this teaching of sexual questions amounts to a craziness. It would amaze you to know the absurd lengths these schools go on that sort of teaching. For God's sake, don't get this craziness in the public schools! It is bad enough in medical schools."

"There was an upward tendency in the New York stock market yesterday, led by railroads. The market closed strong."

The regular meeting of the Hawaii Promotion Committee will be held at the rooms of the Merchant's Association at 3:30 this afternoon.

Hawaiian stocks in San Francisco closed as follows yesterday: Hawaii 34 bid; Honokaa, 7.50 bid, 9.50 asked; Hutchinson, 16 bid; Kilauea, 12 bid; Onomea, 29.50 bid; Paauhau, 17.75 bid, 18.25 asked; Union, 32 bid.

Senhor Jose Baltha de Freitas, minister of Portugal to China and Japan, who passed through Honolulu in the Tenyo Maru yesterday, while in San Francisco officially selected the site for the Portuguese building at the world's fair of 1915.

Senhor de Freitas, with and son were entertained by Senhor Canavarro, consul-general for Portugal, during their stay here. Minister de Freitas will have his headquarters in Pekin, but will also have an office in Tokio.

"Business vs. War" is the title of Business Men's Bulletin No. 15 issued by the Lake Mohonk conference on international arbitration. It quotes a resolution of the conference of May last, when forty-seven commercial bodies were represented by delegates of their own selection, and a resolution of the fifth international congress of chambers of commerce held at Boston in September last. On these texts it comments in part as follows:

"These advanced official utterances leave no doubt that business leaders recognize the necessity of substitutes that will eventually do away with war. It remains for business men everywhere to translate these declarations into action. Resolutions alone will not establish an effective international court; but when the business men of the world demand such a court it will come. Thousands of business men are already among the active workers for arbitration or judicial settlement of differences between nations."

Russia threatens China by saying she'll recognize the independence of Mongolia unless China accedes to her demands.

A 17-year-old crank was seized by the New York police as he was on his way to New Jersey to kill Woodrow Wilson.
